Senate is in recess. This authority is limited to decisions regarding the day-to-day operations of the organization and minor financial decisions. This release of voting authority does not give the Student Government Executive Board the authority to make major decisions such as policy changes or large financial purchases or disbursements without the consent of the Senate. Any decision or action made through the Release of Voting Authority still requires notice to the Senate. Senate members are strongly encouraged to check their SNHU student email regularly as they may be required to submit an electronic vote regarding any major financial decisions. No policy changes may be made during a Senate Recess.

- A motion was made by Senator Jaquith and seconded by Senator Larue to approve the release their voting authority to the Executive Board members effective April 16th, 2019 through September 10th, 2019 to ensure continued business operations during the summer months. Motion passed with a vote of 5-0-0.

A Motion was moved by Senator Jaquith and seconded by Senator Desruisseaux to adjourn the meeting. Motion passed (5-0-0).

Adjournment: The Senate meeting was adjourned at 8:18PM
